

All attendees receive the People Do Matter Awards program when they arrive at the registration table for the event. This program contains information about the People Do Matter Awards, the speakers, and all of the finalists. Event attendees will continually reference this program throughout the evening. Each time an attendee opens the brochure, you have the likelihood of reaching them. This is the perfect opportunity to promote your company to approximately 200 HR professionals of all levels while supporting the People Do Matter initiative at the same time.

Earn the reputation of believing "People Do Matter" by showing your support for the event and placing an ad in the program.

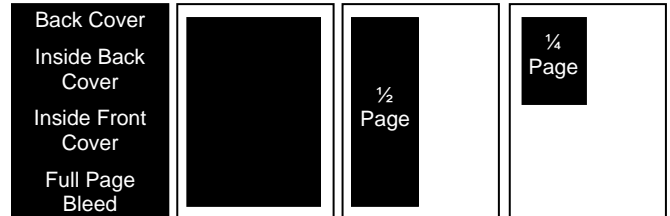

We have a variety of ad spaces available. See below for ad spaces and prices.
